

Momentum for rail line

THE Greens have joined a growing group of campaigners calling for a passenger rail line between Mount Barker and Adelaide.

SA Greens Senator Sarah Hanson-Young, Robert Simms MLC and Greens Senate candidate Barbara Pocock are collectively calling for a significant federal and state investment in the service, each vowing to make passenger rail an election promise.

Their call follows the release of Infrastructure SA's report, which argued passenger rail would not meet consumer needs.